ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Thomas Hampson, baritone

Thomas Hampson, America’s foremost baritone, has received international honors and awards for his captivating artistry and cultural leadership. Lauded as a Metropolitan Opera Guild “Met Mastersinger” and inducted into both the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and Gramophone’s Hall of Fame, Hampson is one of the most respected and innovative musicians of our time. His discography comprises more than 170 albums, including multiple Grammy, Edison, and Grand Prix du Disque award-winners. A recipient of the famed Concertgebouw Prize, he received the 2009 Distinguished Artistic Leadership Award from the Atlantic Council in Washington, D.C., and was appointed the New York Philharmonic’s first-ever Artist-in-Residence. In 2010, he was honored with a Living Legend Award by the Library of Congress, where he has served as Special Advisor to the Study and Performance of Music in America.

Notable engagements for Thomas Hampson’s 2018–19 season include his debut at the Canadian Opera Company, singing the title role in the world premiere of Rufus Wainwright’s Hadrian, as well as his debut at Houston Grand Opera as the famed librettist Lorenzo da Ponte in the world premiere of Tarik O’Regan’s The Phoenix. He sings one of his signature roles, Scarpia, in Tosca, at the Wiener Staatsoper, and returns to Teatro alla Scala as Altair in Strauss’s Die ägyptische Helena.

Recitals with his long-time musical partner Wolfram Rieger include Schubert Week at Berlin’s Boulezsaal and the Schubertiade in Austria.

On the concert stage, he performs Britten’s War Requiem with the Wiener Symphoniker under Philippe Jordan, in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the end of World War I, then tours with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra under Vasily Petrenko with works by Hugo Wolf, Aaron Copland, and others. After performing Copland’s Old American Songs with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and conductor Bramwell Tovey, he reunites with clarinetist Daniel Ottenamer and the Wiener Virtuosen for a concert of Mahler songs in Vienna’s Musikverein.

Hampson gives several gala performances with renowned vocal partners Angela Gheorgiu, Nadine Sierra, Kristine Opolais, and Elena Mosuc. He will also share the stage with his son-in-law, bass-baritone Luca Pisaroni, for their “No Tenors Allowed” program in Boston, Toronto, and Santa Fe.

The 2018–19 season also marks the exciting launch of Thomas Hampson’s “Song of America: Beyond Liberty” project, developed with stage director Francesca Zambello and writer Royce Vavrek. Using anecdotes, historical monologues, and readings of his favorite poems, Mr. Hampson celebrates the history of America and its people through song. The Hampsong Foundation, which he founded in 2003, is dedicated to promoting intercultural dialogue and understanding through song.

During his 2017–18 season, Hampson returned to the Opéra National de Paris in one of his signature roles, Count Danilo in Lehár’s Die lustige Witwe, and sang the title role in Verdi’s Simon Boccanegra at the Wiener Staatsoper and Scarpia in Puccini’s Tosca at the Bayerische Staatsoper. Another highlight was his debut concert tour in Australia, where he was acclaimed as “the George Clooney of opera” (Sydney Morning Herald).

An honorary professor on the Faculty of Philosophy of the University of Heidelberg, Hampson holds honorary doctorates from Manhattan School of Music, the New England Conservatory, Whitworth College, and San Francisco Conservatory and is an honorary member of London’s Royal Academy of Music. He carries the titles of Kammersänger of the Wiener Staatsoper and Commandeur dans l’Ordre des Arts et des Lettres of the Republic of France and was awarded the Austrian Medal of Honor in Arts and Sciences. In 2017, he and his collaborator pianist Wolfram Rieger received the Hugo Wolf Medal in recognition of their outstanding achievements in the art of song interpretation.

Thomas Hampson enjoys a singular international career as an opera singer, recording artist, and “ambassador of song,” maintaining an active interest in research, education, musical outreach, and technology. He is the Artistic Director of the Heidelberg Lied Academy and collaborates with the Barenboim-Said Academy Schubert Week in Berlin each year. His international master class schedule is a continuing online resource of Manhattan School of Music, Medici.tv, and The Hampsong Foundation livestream channel.

Strauss

“Es gibt ein Reich” from Ariadne auf Naxos

Es gibt ein Reich,       There is a realm where all is pure:
Wo alles rein ist;         it has a name too: Realm of Death.
Es hat auch einen Namen:   Here nothing is pure.
Totenreich.              All is finished here.
Hier ist nichts rein!
Hier kam alles zu allem.

Bald aber naht ein Bote, But soon a messenger will draw nigh, Hermes heißen sie ihn.    Hermes they call him.
Mit seinem Stab         With his staff
regiert er die Seelen:   he rules all souls:
Wie leichte Vögel,      Like birds on the wing,
Wie welke Blätter,      like dry leaves,
Treibt er sie hin.      he drives them before him.
Du schöner, stiller Gott! Thou beautiful, serene god!
Sieh! Ariadne wartet!    See! Ariadne awaits!

Ach, von allen wilden Schmerzen Oh, my heart must be cleansed
Muß das Herz gereinigt sein; of all wild grief,
Dann wird dein Gesicht mir nicken, then your presence will call me,
Wird dein Schritt vor meiner Höhle, your footsteps will approach my cave, Dunkel wird auf meinen Augen Deine Hand auf meinem Herzen sein.

Deine Hand auf meinem Herzen sein. In den schönen Feierkleidern,
In den schönen Feierkleidern,
Die mir meine Mutter gab,
Diese Glieder werden bleiben,
Stille Höhle wird mein Grab.
Aber lautlos meine Seele
Folgt ihrem neuen Herrn,
Wie ein leichtes Blatt im Winde
Folgt hinunter, folgt so gern.

Du wirst mich befreien,
Mir selber mich geben,
Dieses lastende Leben
Du nimm es von mir.
An dich werd’ ich mich ganz verlieren,
Bei dir wird Ariadne sein.

Meine Ruh’ ist hin,
Mein Herz ist schwer,
Ich finde sie nimmer
Und nimmermehr.

Wo ich ihn nicht hab’
Ist mir das Grab,
Die ganze Welt
Ist mir vergällt.

Mein armer Kopf
Ist mir verrückt
Mein armer Sinn
Ist mir zerstückt.

Schubert

Gretchen am Spinnrade (Poem by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe)

Meine Ruh’ ist hin,
My peace is gone
My heart is heavy;
I shall never
Ever find peace again.

Mein Herz ist schwer,
Ich finde sie nimmer
Und nimmermehr.

Wo ich ihn nicht hab’
Ist mir das Grab,
Die ganze Welt
Ist mir vergällt.

Mein armer Kopf
Ist mir verrückt
Mein armer Sinn
Ist mir zerstückt.

– Trans. Peggie Cochrane

darkness will cover my eyes,
your hand will touch my heart.
In the beautiful festal robes that my mother bequeathed me
my body will remain;
the silent cave will be my tomb.
But mutely my soul
will follow its new lord,
as a light leaf in the wind flutters downward, gladly falling.
Darkness will cover my eyes
and fill my heart;
this body will remain,
richly adorned and all alone.

You will set me free,
give me to myself,
this burdensome life,
take it from me.
I will lose myself entirely in you;
with you Ariadne will abide.

The Lament of Ian the Proud (Poem by Fiona MacLeod)

What is this crying that I hear in the wind?
Is it the old sorrow and the old grief?
Or is it a new thing coming, a whirling leaf?
About the gray hair of me who am weary and blind?
I know not what it is, but on the moor above the shore
There is a stone which the purple nets of heather bind,
And thereon is writ: She will return no more.
O blown, whirling leaf, and the old grief,
And wind crying to me who am old and blind!

Nach ihm nur schau' ich Zum Fenster hinaus,
Nach ihm nur geh' ich Aus dem Haus.

Sein hoher Gang,
Sein' edle Gestalt,
Seines Mundes Lächeln,
Seiner Augen Gewalt.

Und seiner Rede Zauberfluss.
Sein Händedruck,
Und ach, sein Kuss!

Mein Busen drängt sich
Nach ihm hin.
Ach dürft' ich fassen
Und halten ihn.

Und küss' ihn
So wie ich wollt'
An seinen Küssen
Vergehen soll't!

My peace is gone
My heart is heavy;
I shall never
Ever find peace again.

It's only for him
I gaze from the window,
It's only for him
I leave the house.

His proud bearing
His noble form,
The smile on his lips,
The power of his eyes,

And the magic flow
Of his words,
The touch of his hand,
And ah, his kiss!

My bosom
Yearns for him.
Ah! if I could clasp
And hold him,

And kiss him
To my heart's content,
And in his kisses
Perish!

Mozart

“Se vuol ballare” from Le nozze di Figaro

Bravo, signor padrone!
Ora incomincio
a capir il mistero ...
e a veder schietto
tutto il vostro progetto:
a Londra, è vero?
Voi ministro, io corriero,
e la Susanna ...
secreta ambasciatrice.
Non sarà, non sarà. Figaro il dice.

Se vuol ballare, Signor Contino,
Il chitarrino le suonerò.
Il chitarrino le suonerò.
Sì, le suonerò, sì, le suonerò.

If you want to dance, my little count,
I'll play the guitar.
I'll play the guitar.
Yes, I'll play it, yes, I'll play it.

Se vuol venire nella mia scuola,
La capriola insegnèro.
Se vuol venire nella mia scuola,
La capriola insegnèro.
Sì, insegnèro. Sì, insegnèro. Sì, insegnèro

If you want to go to my school,
I'll teach you how to somersault.
If you want to go to my school,
I'll teach you how to somersault.
Yes, I can teach you. (repeat)
I'll find out, I'll find out… (repeat)
But, gently, gently does it:
better to find things out,
By acting dumb, I'll find it all out.

I'll use all the arts of combat,
Striking you just so, just my little joke,
All your schemes I'll discover.

I'll use all the arts of combat,
Striking you just so, just my little joke,
All your schemes I'll discover.
All your schemes I'll discover.
All your schemes I'll discover.
I will find out, will find out.

If you want to dance, my little count,
If you want to dance, my little count,
I'll play the guitar.
I'll play the guitar.
Yes, I'll play it.
Yes, I'll play it.

It horrifies me, when I see his countenance,
The moon shows me my own form.

You my fearful double, you pale partner!
Why do you ape the pain of my love,
That has tortured me here in this spot
So many a night, in times long ago?

If I could be the shadow of a doubt,
If I could be a thought of one's delight,
I'd find out, I'd find out.

But gently, gently does it:
Better to find things out,
By acting dumb, I'll find it all out.

I will find out, I will find out.
All your schemes I will discover.
All your schemes I will discover.
All your schemes I will discover.
All your schemes I will discover.
I will find out, I will find out.

If you want to dance, my little count,
If you want to dance, my little count,

I'll play the guitar.

I'll find out, I'll find out… (repeat)
But, gently, gently does it:
better to find things out,
By acting dumb, I'll find it all out.

I'll use all the arts of combat,
Striking you just so, just my little joke,
All your schemes I'll discover.

I'll use all the arts of combat,
Striking you just so, just my little joke,
All your schemes I'll discover.
All your schemes I'll discover.
All your schemes I'll discover.
I will find out, will find out.

If you want to dance, my little count,
If you want to dance, my little count,
I'll play the guitar.
I'll play the guitar.
Yes, I'll play it.
Yes, I'll play it.

It horrifies me, when I see his countenance,
The moon shows me my own form.

You my fearful double, you pale partner!
Why do you ape the pain of my love,
That has tortured me here in this spot
So many a night, in times long ago?

“Chi il bel sogno di Doretta” from La Rondine

Chi il bel sogno di Doretta poté indovinar?
Il suo mister come mai come mai finì

Who could ever guess the beautiful dream Doretta had?
Why her mystery came to an end

Ahimè! un giorno uno student in bocca la bacìo
e fu quel bacio rivelazione;
fu la passione!

Ah! One day a student kissed her on the lips and the kiss was a revelation:
It was passion!

Folle amore!
Folle ebbrezza!
Chi la sottìl carezza d’un bacio così ardente mai ridir potrà?

Crazy love!
Crazy intoxication!
Who could ever describe the subtle caress of such a burning kiss?

Ah! mio sogno!
Ah! mia vita!
Che importa la ricchezza se alfine è rifornita la felicità!
O sogno d’or poter amar così!

Ah! my dream!
Ah! my life!
Who cares about riches if at last happiness flourishes!
Oh golden dream to be able to love like this!

Mendelssohn

Suleika
(Poem by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe)

Ach, um deine feuchten Schwingen, West, wie sehr ich dich beneide:
Denn du kannst ihm Kunde bringen Was ich in der Trennung leide!

Ah, your damp wings,
West Wind, how much I envy you them;
for you can bring him tidings of what I suffer in our separation!

Die Bewegung deiner Flügel Weckt im Busen stilles Sehnen;
The movement of your wings awakens in my breast a silent longing;

The Lake of Innisfree
(Poem by William Butler Yeats)

I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made;
Nine bean rows will I have there, a hive for the honey bee,
And live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow,
Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings;
There midnight’s all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow,
And evening full of the linnet’s wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore;
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart’s core.

“Love, could I only tell thee” from Der Rosenkavalier

Love, could I only tell thee
How dear thou art to me,
Show thee my heart’s devotion,
Say how I worship thee!
The height of stars above thee,
The deepness of the sea,
Are as the height and deepness
Of my heart’s love for thee.
Love, could I only tell thee
How dear thou art to me!

When we awhile are parted,
The days seem lonely years;
I count the weary moments
Without thee by my tears.
As thou art near or far, love,
The earth is glad or grey;
Life without thee is darkness,
Life by thy side is day.
Love, could I only tell thee
How dear thou art to me!
How dear, oh love, thou art.

(POEM BY HEINRICH HART)

Wenn du es wüßtest,
Was träumen heißt von brennenden
Küssen,
Von Wandern und Ruhern mit der Geliebten,
Aug in Auge,
Und kosend und plaudernd,
Wenn du es wüßtest,
Du neigtest dein Herz!

Wenn du es wüßtest,
Was bangen heißt in einsamen
Nächten,
Umschauert vom Sturm, da niemand
tröstet
Milden Mundes die kampfmüde Seele,
Wenn du es wüßtest,
Du kämst zu mir.

Wenn du es wüßtest,
Was leben heißt, umhaucht von der Gottheit
Weltschaffendem Atem,
Zu schweben empor, lichtgetragen,
Zu seligen Höhen,
Wenn du es wüßtest,
Du lebstest mit mir!

If you only knew what it’s like to dream of burning kisses,
of wandering and resting with one’s beloved,
eye turned to eye,
and cuddling and chatting –
if you only knew,
you would incline your heart to me!

If you only knew what it’s like to feel dread on lonely nights,
surrounded by a raging storm, while no one comforts
with a mild voice your struggle – weary soul –
if you only knew,
you would come to me.

If you only knew what it’s like to live, surrounded by God’s
world-creating breath,
to float up, carried by the light,
to blessed heights –
if you only knew,
then you would live with me!

“Di rigori armato il seno” from Der Rosenkavalier

Di rigori armato il seno contro amor mi ribellai
ma fui vinto in un baleno
in mirar due vaghi rai.
Ah! Che resiste poco cor di gelo a stral di fuoco.

With severity my breast was armed and I rebelled against love when with one stroke I was slain on seeing two lovely eyes.
Ah, how feebly
an icy heart resists such fiery arrows.

“Depuis le jour” from Louise

Depuis le jour où je me suis donnée, toute fleurie semble ma destinée.
Je crois rêver sous un ciel de féerie,
l'amé encore grisée
de ton premier baiser!
Quelle belle vie!
Mon rêve n'était pas un rêve!
Ah! je suis heureuse!
L'amour étend sur moi ses ailes!
Au jardin de mon coeur chante une joie nouvelle!
Tout vibre,
tout se réjouit de mon triomphe!
Autour de moi tout est sourire, lumière et joie!
Et je tremble délicieusement
Au souvenir charmant
Du premier jour
D'amour!
Quelle belle vie!
Ah! je suis heureuse! trop heureuse...
Et je tremble délicieusement
Au souvenir charmant
Du premier jour
D'amour!

Since the day I gave myself,
my fate seems all in flower.
I seem to be dreaming beneath a fairy sky,
my soul still enraptured
by that very first kiss!
What a wonderful life!
My dream was not a dream!
Oh! I am so happy!
Love spreads its wings over me!
In the garden of my heart
a new joy sings!
Everything resonates,
everything rejoices in my triumph!
About me all is smiles,
light and happiness!
And I tremble deliciously
at the delightful memory
of the first day
of love!
What a glorious life!
Oh, how happy I am! Too happy!...
And I tremble deliciously
at the delightful memory
of the first day
of love!

Sure on this shining night
(Poem by James Agee)

Sure on this shining night
Of star made shadows round,
Kindness must watch for me
This side the ground.
The late year lies down the north.
All is healed, all is health.
High summer holds the earth.
Hearts all whole.
Sure on this shining night
I weep for wonder
Wandering far alone
Of shadows on the stars.

Who so often stands in tears,
in her tears simply irresistible;
without strength and
self-consciousness,
unadorned with secret blossoms,
yet with an inexhaustible, deep
true inner sentence that under her own power she can never yank herself up by the roots;
such are born to twine
lovingly about another life:
upon her first love
she rests her entire life's fate,
for she is counted among those rare
flowers,
those that only blossom once.

Epheu
(Poem by Felix Dahn)

Aber Epheu nenn' ich jene Mädchen
mit den sanften Worten,
mit dem Haar, dem schlichten, hellen
um den leis' gewölbten Brau'n, mit den braunen seele- vollen Rehenaugen,
But ivy is what I call that maiden
with soft words,
with the simple, bright hair,
gently waving brown about her,
with brown, soulful doe's eyes,
die in Tränen steh'n so oft,
in ihren Tränen gerade sind unwiderstehlich;
ohne Kraft und Selbstgefühl, schmucklos mit verborg'ner Blüte, doch mit unerschöpflich tiefer
treuer inniger Empfindung können sie mit eigner Triebkraft nie sich heben aus den Wurzeln, sind geboren, sich zu ranken
liebend um ein andr Leben:
an der ersten Lieb' umrankung
hält ihr ganzes Lebensschicksal, denn sie zählen zu den seltnen Blumen,
die nur einmal blühen.

without strength and
self-consciousness,
unadorned with secret blossoms,
yet with an inexhaustible, deep

ABOUT THE DISTANCE LEARNING PROGRAM

In 1996, under the pioneering influence of Maestro Pinchas Zukerman and President Marta Istomin, Manhattan School of Music instituted a groundbreaking distance learning program—the first of its kind at a major conservatory—devoted to exploring the use of state-of-the-art videoconferencing technology for music education and performance. MSM has since become a proud leader in the field, recognizing the vast potential for the creative use of broadband videoconferencing and its related instructional technologies in the arts as a whole. Led by Christianne Orto, Dean of Distance Learning and Recording Arts, the program provides access to artistic and academic resources that enhance students’ education in musical performance while heightening the global community’s awareness of and participation in the musical arts.

The program has become a leading provider of distance learning content for higher education, K–12 schools, and community organizations, including master classes and coachings, clinics, lessons, audition preparation, professional development, and academic seminars. Teaching and learning partnerships have been established with students, educators, and distinguished artists in 46 states and 31 countries, including Australia, China, and Europe, reaching an average of 7,500 students each year.

MSM presented its first webcast in 2003, featuring Pinchas Zukerman conducting a student chamber orchestra in Elgar’s String Serenade. In 2004, the School inaugurated live web streaming of student concerts from the William R. and Irene D. Miller Recital Hall. In 2007, MSM hosted Manhattan Connects: An Internet2 Conference for New York’s Cultural Institutions in collaboration with Internet2, Columbia University, and Nysernet, which celebrated the potential of advanced broadband networking for the arts.

In the first live video stream of a classical music event to an iPhone/iPod touch application, the Distance Learning Program partnered with InstantEncore in 2010 to present a master class with renowned baritone Thomas Hampson. In 2011, MSM created an online digital library to give viewers access to the Program’s extensive video archive of past classes and events. In 2012, the Virtual Music Studio pilot program was launched to reach home-based learners via desktop videoconferencing for music. And in 2013, the Program created a special distance learning collaboration with schools throughout Nebraska, in which students received credit for weekly applied music instruction from Manhattan School of Music. In 2013–14, over 800 music lessons to Nebraska were delivered.

Most recently, MSM Distance Learning is pleased to announce the creation of an endowed fund, the Melos Fund for Distance Learning Innovation at Manhattan School of Music, established to support, cultivate, and expand leading-edge music distance learning initiatives and programs at the School.
